

Robert G. Gries Dies; CIA Intelligence Aide

Funeral services for Robert G. Gries, 45, an intelligence officer for the Central Intelligence Agency, were to be held today at 2 p.m., Ives Funeral home, Arlington.

Mr. Gries, of 2500 North Quebec street, Arlington, died last Friday after suffering a heart attack while working at his desk. He was rushed to George Washington University Hospital but died en route.

A CIA employee since 1952, Mr. Gries was born in Champaign County, Ohio, the son of Dr. and Mrs. John M. Gries.

A 1935 graduate of Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, he received a master's degree a few years later from George Washington University here. For five years he was employed by the American Security and Trust Co., Washington, and later entered the Navy for World War II service.

Mr. Gries began Government service after the war with the Office of Military Government in Berlin, Germany, and later served in the Office of the High Commissioner for Germany. He then came to Washington to work for CIA.

Mr. Gries leaves his wife, Lois, and four children; Alex, 13, Martha, 11, Tommy, 7 and Marshall, 5 all of the home address; his mother, Mrs. Ethel Gries of Champaign County, and two brothers, Dr. Paul Gries of Rapid City, S. Dak., and Dr. George Gries, Tucson, Ariz.

Burial will be in National Memorial Park Cemetery, Falls Church, Va.